Wednesday, July 2nd, 2025 | Early Diagnosis of Pancreatic Cancer – 2025 Update

Venue: University of Dusseldorf, University Hospital – Auditorium 13 A / 13 B, Moorenstrasse 5, 40225 Dusseldorf, Germany

10:00 hrs	Welcome
	Irene Esposito (Dusseldorf, Germany)
Session 1:	Morphology and genetics of PDAC precursors in humans and animal models
	Chairs: Ivonne Regel (Munich, Germany) / Caroline Verbeke (Oslo, Norway)
10:05 - 10:30 hrs	Precursor lesions and early PDAC: morphology
	Volkan Adsay (Istanbul, Turkey)
10.20 10.55 hrs	Draguesar lacions and early DDAC constins
10:30 - 10:55 hrs	Precursor lesions and early PDAC: genetics  Claudio Luchini (Verona, Italy)
	Cidadio Edenini (verona, italy)
10:55 - 11:20 hrs	Animal models of PDAC precursors: not only mice
	Katja Steiger (Munich, Germany)
11:20 - 11:45 hrs	Use of animal models to dissect the genetics of the human disease
11.20 - 11.45 1115	Roland Rad (Munich, Germany)
11:45 - 12:10 hrs	Dissecting the ecosystem of PDAC precursors
	Barbara T. Gruenwald (Essen, Germany)
12:15 - 12:45 hrs	Keynote lecture: The Neandertal legacy in pancreatic cancer
12.13 12.43 1113
	Daniele Campa (Pisa, Italy)
12:45 - 13:45 hrs	Daniele Campa (Pisa, Italy)  Lunch break
	Lunch break
12:45 - 13:45 hrs 12:45 - 13:45 hrs	Lunch break  Pancreatic cancer: Call to prevention and screening – can we do more?
	Lunch break
12:45 - 13:45 hrs	Pancreatic cancer: Call to prevention and screening – can we do more?  Moderators: Gabriella Lionetto (Verona, Italy); Patrick Michl (Heidelberg, Germany); Letizia Procaccio (Padua, Italy)
	Lunch break  Pancreatic cancer: Call to prevention and screening – can we do more?  Moderators: Gabriella Lionetto (Verona, Italy); Patrick Michl (Heidelberg, Germany); Letizia Procaccio (Padua, Italy)  Pancreatic cancer – a raising but neglected threat?

Session 2:	Identification and treatment of high-risk patients
	Chairs: Thomas Gress (Marburg, Germany) / Núria Malats (Madrid, Spain)
13:45 - 14:10 hrs	Pancreatic Cancer Europe: Challenges and achievements
	Patrycija Rzadkowska (Brussels, Belgium) – invited
14:10 - 14:35 hrs	High-risk populations & polygenic risk scores
	Evangelina López de Maturana (Madrid, Spain)
14:35 - 15:00 hrs	Liquid Biopsy approaches for early detection
	Susanne Roth (Tuebingen, Germany)
15:00 - 15:25 hrs	Biosensors: the new frontier of disease detection
	Eleonora Macchia / Luisa Torsi (Bari, Italy)
15:25 - 15:50 hrs	Technical challenges and new developments in EUS diagnostics
	Livia Archibugi (Milan, Italy)
15:50 - 16:15 hrs	Radiomics takes it all
	Rickmer Braren (Munich, Germany)
16:15 - 16:45 hrs	Coffee break
16:45 - 17:10 hrs	The 5 W (who-what-when-where-why) of surgical treatment in high-risk patients
10.43 - 17.10 1113	Roberto Salvia (Verona, Italy)
17:10 - 17:30 hrs	How to improve perioperative care
	Andrè Mihaljevic (Tuebingen, Germany)
Session 3:	Case discussion – Discussion of cases presented by junior colleagues
	Chairs: Livia Archibugi (Milan, Italy); Rickmer Braren (Munich, Germany); Marco del Chiaro (Denver/CO, USA); Claudio Luchini (Verona, Italy)
17:30 - 17:50 hrs	When pathology speaks louder than imaging: Unmasking a biliary malignancy
	hidden behind a pancreatic facade
	Rita Vesce (Dusseldorf, Germany)
17:50 - 18:10 hrs	Intraductal papillary squamous neoplasm (IPSN) of the pancreas: another intraductal precursor of pancreatic cancer?
	Calogero Ciulla (Verona, Italy)
18:10 - 18:30 hrs	Simple Mucinous Cyst: unknown, infrequent andharmless?
	Judith Millastre Bocos (Zaragoza, Spain)
18:30 hrs	Wrap up
	Irene Esposito (Dusseldorf, Germany)
