

How to create a Waldorf community between students, teachers and parents

Christof Wiechert
Alanus University, Germany

What we achieved?

- in the preschool and Kindergarten Movement
- in the primary school
- in secondary school and or highschool
- in higher education

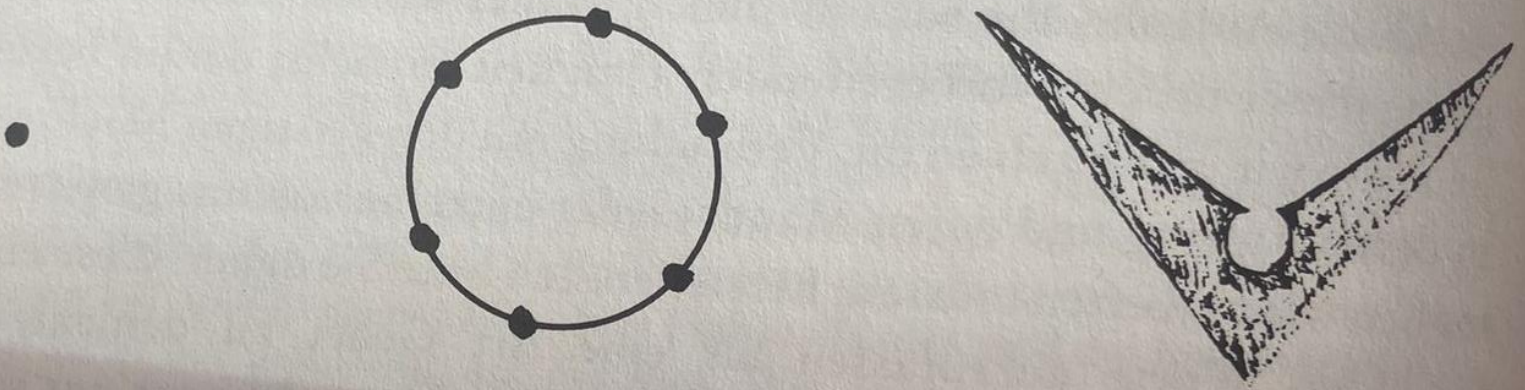

About a possible existing Mission Statement

- The thinking and intellect holding as an essential human activity
- An education that does not harm, but produces lifelong health qualities
- Developing social Frameworks for school life and that serves communities

The college-meditation regarding

- the individual activity (the inner revolution)
- the life within the teaching staff
- the energy to build a community

Kaum. (In die Schale des Mutes hinein fällt von dem wirkenden Zeitgeist ein Tropfen des Zeitenlichtes.)

«Meine lieben Freunde! Es obliegt uns, die Wichtigkeit...

The aspects of Community

- teacher-teacher relation
- teacher student relation
- teacher class relation
- teacher parent relations
- the community of teachers and parents

The golden Triangle of education:

New social realities:

- Bridging the income gap
- Involving parents in the children's learning as witnesses
- New views, new subjects
- energizing a tired community
