The score of all the classifications of the event will be from App. A.

The following differences will be applied:

- from 1 to 3 trials no difference;
- from 4 to 6 tests 1 discard;
- from 7 tests up 2 discard.

The event will be considered valid if at least one race is completed; the event will be considered valid for the purposes of the national classification.

If the Resia race is not held, each competitor duly registered and present will be assigned a score equal to the average of all the points that would have been assigned in this event of Resia rounded to the higher 0.5. For the purpose of the national ranking, all the Italian events of the Championship will be taken into consideration, Resia and Roccaraso with the absolute racing and long distance classification. A competitor who does not participate in the event of Resia will not receive points, even if he is regularly registered with payment made online but not present. In the case of a tie in the ranking, this will be dissolved in favor of the competitor who has the best gap. The rankings of all categories will be extrapolated from the general ranking; The trophies of the men and women Resia event will be awarded to the winners of their respective rankings only if at least 3 competitors are registered.

6 COURSE:

The event will take place in the area used for the practice of Snowkite.

Up & Downwind course will preferably be prepared. The choice of the course and the characteristics of the start and finish are at the discretion of the Race Committee, depending on the weather conditions and cannot be subject to protests or requests for repairs. Possible courses can be found in Addendum - NoRSI. Long Distance: competitors will be classified in order of completed laps and, within the same number of laps completed, in order of arrival. Competitors with the most completed laps will be ranked first, competitors with the second most completed laps will be ranked second, etc.

16 RISK STATEMENT

- 16.1. In cases of force majeure or on grounds of administrative orders or for safety reasons, the organizing authority is entitled to make changes in the realization of the event or to cancel the event. This does not constitute any liability by the organizer towards the participant, if the reasons for the changes or the cancellation do not result from a willful or grossly negligent behavior of the organizer.
- 16.2 In case of a violation of obligations that do not constitute primary or material contractual duties (cardinal obligations), the liability of the organizer for financial and property damages incurred by the participant during or in connection with the participation in the event and resulting from a conduct of the organizer, CKI, the involved classes and their representatives, servants or agents (including but not limited to race committee, protest committee and technical committee), is restricted to damages that were caused willfully or grossly negligent. When a violation of cardinal obligations occurs due to minor negligence, the liability of the organizer is limited to foreseeable, typical damages.
- 16.3 Competitors and support team participate in the event entirely at their own risk and they are reminded of the provisions of RRS 3, Decision to Race. Kiteboarding is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore involves an element of risk. By taking part in the event, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:
- They acknowledge that there are risks involved in the Event. They fully realise the dangers of participating in the Event, and fully assume the risks associated with their participation and their wellbeing and safety during and after the Event.
 - They understand and acknowledge that the Event organisers (including all officials and event volunteers) provide no warranties, regarding their wellbeing and safety.
 - They acknowledge that participating in this event may involve a test of a person's physical and mental limits and carries with it the potential for death, serious injury, and property loss. The risks include, but are not limited to, those caused by the elements, facilities, temperature, weather, condition of participants, equipment, vehicular traffic, lack of hydration, and actions of other people including, but not limited to, participants, volunteers, officials, and/or producers of the event.
 - They agree that to the extent permissible by law, World Sailing, CKI, their classes, the event organisers (including all officials and event volunteers), CKI, the sponsors and other parties associated with the Event, have no liability to them whatsoever for any direct or indirect loss, (including, but not limited to injury or death) sustained by them during or in any way related to their participation in the Event.
 - They WAIVE, RELEASE, AND DISCHARGE from any and all liability, including but not limited to, liability arising from the negligence or fault of the entities or persons released, for their death, disability, personal injury, property damage, property theft, or actions of any kind which may hereafter occur to them including their traveling to and from this event, THE FOLLOWING ENTITIES OR PERSONS: World Sailing, CKI, their classes, the event organisers (including all officials and event volunteers), CKI, the sponsors and other parties associated with the Event, employees, volunteers, representatives, and agents, and the event holders, sponsors, and volunteers;
 - They INDEMNIFY, HOLD HARMLESS, AND PROMISE NOT TO SUE the entities or persons mentioned in the above paragraphs from any and all liabilities or claims made as a result of participation in this event, whether caused by the negligence of release or otherwise.
 - They have taken medical advice on any pre-existing medical conditions and confirm that it is medically safe for them to participate in the Event.
 - They are responsible for the safety of themselves, their equipment and their other property at any time.

- They are satisfied that their equipment is in good order, equipped to compete in the event and they are fit to participate;
- They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions;
- They consent to receive medical treatment which may be deemed advisable in the event of injury, accident, and/or illness during this event.
- They acknowledge that the provision of a race management and rescue team, judges, umpires and other officials and volunteers by the organizer does not relieve them of their own responsibilities;
- They acknowledge that the provision of rescue craft cover is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances.

17 DATA PROTECTION AND PRIVACY

With registration the competitor or support person agrees on data usage as defined in this data protection and privacy notice. See CKI Privacy Notice in Addendum 6.

Reference is made to data protection of personal information and data. Any personal information and data given to the organizers will be used only as follows:

- (a) All data regarding participating athletes, coaches and their kiteboard will be processed and archived for the purpose of this event and events of similar nature that might be of interest to the participant.
- (b) Personal information contains the participant's real name, date of birth, home club, boat type, boat number, address data, mobile phone, email address and emergency contact information. In particular, results, calculatory and visual analyses, position monitoring and race analyses will be published with reference to the competitors' names.
